

Short courses Module 11. – Supply Chain Management

from The Academy of Constructing Excellence's Diploma in Managerial Excellence in Construction & Engineering (NZQA Lvl. 6 DipMEEC).

Course Description

This stand alone unit module provides an introduction to the basic principles of Supply Chain Management (SCM) and their application to the management process within corporate enterprises.

Topics covered include:

- Inventory Control
- Just in time principles
- Agile manufacturing.

Learning Outcomes

On completion of the module, participants will be able to:

- demonstrate a knowledge of SCMs application to the management process,
- Use inventory control tools,
- Identify opportunities for application of “just in time” principles to Construction,
- Implement “just in time” principles,
- Identify opportunities for application of agile manufacturing principles to Construction,
- Implement agile manufacturing principles,

Tutors

Tim Munro - Managing Consultant, Infracure Ltd

Tim is an experienced procurement practitioner who supports infrastructure clients and suppliers establish and maintain supply relationships that focus on increased customer service, value for money and increased job satisfaction.

John Tookey

John’s research commenced at Glasgow Caledonian University, with research and particular teaching interests in construction project management, construction logistics and construction marketing. He was promoted to Senior Lecturer in 2005 before taking up his first New Zealand post in the University of Auckland’s Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering. He is now an Assoc. Prof at AUT.

Industry Leader Guest Lecture

Connal Townsend - CEO - The Property Council

Connal will speak around his CEO’s role and the relationship between effective construction management and client drivers in procurement.

Attendance Details

25th Feb 2010 1pm to 5.30pm and 26th Feb. 2010 8.00am to 4.00pm, with lunch and refreshments both days.

In conjunction with and hosted by NZIM - 4th Floor - Philip Fox Twrs. 209 Queen St. Akl.

End