

Christchurch Rebuild - Construction Market Engagement Forum

January 2014

Christchurch is entering a significant period of construction and infrastructure development. Today's forum is a chance for public sector clients to engage with construction suppliers on rebuild programmes and intentions going forward.

As a contributor, your input is vital to support effective planning and programme mobilisation, and in the long run help deliver the best possible rebuild for Christchurch.

Where: Christian Cullen Lounge, Addington Events Centre
75 Jack Hinton Dr, Addington, Christchurch

When: 28th January 2014, 1.30pm to 5:30pm (followed by networking)

Agenda

- 1.30pm Arrival, coffee & registration
- 1.45pm Introduction & welcome
Roger Sutton, CERA
- 1.50pm Client presentations on their forward work programmes: Opportunity for clients to share their individual forward work programmes, challenges and rebuild aspirations.
Warwick Isaacs, CCDU
David Hobern, Ministry of Education
Andrew Booker, Housing NZ
- 2.35pm Tea & coffee break
- 3.00pm Client presentations on their forward work programmes cont'd: Opportunity for clients to share their individual forward work programmes, challenges and rebuild aspirations.
Kevin Locke, Christchurch City Council
Alex Hanlon, University of Canterbury
Geoff Griffiths, NZTA
- 3.45pm Programme update & lessons learned: SCIRT
Duncan Gibb, SCIRT
- 4.05pm Supply chain challenges, opportunities & constraints – industry perspective
Richard Aitken, Construction Strategy Group
- 4.30pm Panel discussion: Delivering the rebuild
A panel of clients and suppliers will initiate discussion around rebuild delivery challenges
- 5.30pm Close (followed by networking - non-alcoholic beverages supplied, cash bar available)