

NEC Workshop

28 November 2017, Christchurch

Venue: Commodore Hotel, 449 Memorial Drive, Burnside, Christchurch

Agenda

08:00 Arrival, registration and light breakfast

08:15 Welcome

Patrick Cantillon, Christchurch City Council – Major Projects team

08:45 What is new in NEC4

Tim Warren – NEC User Group Secretariat

09:15 Clients' Perspectives on using NEC Contracts:
Current use of NEC, a view forward, practical lessons learned and next steps

1: PowerNet

David Tose – Major Projects Manager, PowerNet

2: Transpower

Marc Palmer – Consultant Advisor

3: Christchurch City Council

New Central Library focus – John Rossetter, Client's Project Lead

10:30 Morning Tea

10:45 NEC vs. CCCS

Joe Colgan, Senior Project Manager - OCTA

11:15 Feedback and Q&A session

Facilitated by Tim Warren and Marc Palmer

12:00 End and Networking with other Client and Supply-side Users

Non-member price: $175 + GST

NEC Users' Group members receive one free place and 25% discount on subsequent places.

