The New Zealand Construction Clients

Meeting No. 19

when: Wednesday 26th May 2010, 08.30 Hrs to 12.30 Hrs where: Whitireia Community Polytechnic, Wellington Campus, Lvl. 1, 107 Cuba St. Wellington

theme: Developing a Robust Client Brief to Deliver Value - Pit falls and Best Practice

Called for by Stakeholders, dissected by the supply team and analysed in the media in the aftermath of "suspected" poor performance – The Clients' Brief is the key to establishing, articulating and disseminating the Vision for a project and, most importantly the Value the Client sees in the project and expectations for the supply team. – In short a good Client Brief and a Client showing leadership is the base line for success – so what are the pitfalls and where can practical examples of Value definition be found?

08.30am Welcome & Introduction, CCG Update by Chair - Joe Hollander

08.45am Host Introduction - Simon Shaw - Project Director - Arrow International

09.00am The Commercial Clients' View - Client Brief Development

Ian Cassels - MD - The Wellington Co.

Ian has a well wealth of experience in exacting Client Brief development and is well placed to speak on this subject as his organisation is the owner/developer for our venue today.

09.30am The Infrastructure Clients' View "Roads of National Significance" Setting the brief

Graham Taylor - Director - NZTA

Significant and complex infrastructure packages are being brought together and fast tracked by the NZTA RONS team. The need for a clear, well articulated and modern brief has been at the forefront of the team's mind; Graham will discuss and review the innovative approach being taken.

10.30am Morning Tea

10.45am The Constructors' View - Graham Darlow - General Manager - Fletcher Engineering

Graham will set out some of the drivers in getting a clear brief set and what the particular elements are that particularly "exercise the constructors' mind". He will speak from his own extensive experience nationally and within Wellington and also look forward to where the industry should be moving.

11.30am Discussion

12.00pm Close and light buffet lunch - CCG Wellington Steering Group meeting follows.
